EXECUTIVE SESSION

REPORTS FROM COMMISSIONERS

Commissioner Wolfe – Expressed concerns as to employee Rob Krabel’s salary was being allocated to the proper departments. Johnson – said that measures were being take to keep track of which department should be charged for his time.

Commissioner Hoult – Office is running smooth; we had an issue with the water bills being damaged in the postal equipment but we have ordered a new paper that should hold up in the system. Moore-How are the water bills looking? Vandivier – thing s are running smoother was we get the debit/credit back up that will help. Johnson – I have training coming up Friday, hopefully we can be able to go live Monday. We will put it on our website to let everyone know we are live with it and the link to use. Hoult-I feel really good as to where things are at.

REPORT FROM MAYOR

The only thing that I have is I need the public to know that when we are plowing the streets they need to move their vehicles along the snow route. Other than that people have been very cooperative, we couldn’t get the alley’s very well but thing went off pretty well.

ADJOURNMENT

Commissioner Hoult moved and Commissioner Wolfe seconded for adjournment at 6:17PM
Voting Aye all members present. Voting nay none. Motion Carried

City Clerk – Janet Vandivier
